✉ jdelisle@boltonusa.com ☎ (443) 824-6901

As a Senior Consultant at Bolton, Jeff works in collaboration with actuaries and other specialized consultants to review, audit, assess and to offer timely and appropriate recommendations to Bolton staff, plan trustees, nonprofit organizations, and public entity management. Jeff analyzes and assists with the effective implementation of plan changes, and provides public sector management/labor relations consulting, with a specialty in public safety. Jeff joined Bolton as a Senior Consultant in 2006 but has worked directly with the company's principals for over thirty years.

Jeff is an active member of several Florida public sector professional organizations that have a direct bearing on the wants and needs of cities and counties; including the Florida City/County Management Association, the Florida League of Cities, and the Florida Government Finance Officers Association.

Jeff is a graduate of the Trenner Academy (BCFD) and Catonsville College (AA), with continuing education from the University of Baltimore (Robert G. Merrick Business School) and Strayer University (Human Resource Management). He is also a Leadership graduate of the Greater Baltimore Committee, a nonpolitical graduate level program that is involved with many nonprofit boards and government commissions.

Jeff served several terms as a U.S. Presidential appointee to the National Fire Academy (USFA) Board of Visitors (Directors).
